Tales of the Ulekan.

An ulekan is a traditional stone mortar and pestle used to make sambal and bumbu, central in every Indonesian kitchen.

We proudly work with small-scale farmers and fishermen to source produce from all over Bali by choosing local ingredients harvested and prepared in their traditional ways. We help create value in remote communities while preserving ancient agricultural wisdom.

Our goal is to bring these tales of the ulekan to our restaurant and elevate awareness of Indonesian flavours as one of the most culturally and historically significant cuisines in the world.

Selamat makan.
